The next questions about how active you are

I'm going to ask you some questions about the time you spend being physically active over an average 7 day period. Please answer even if you don't consider yourself a very active person. Think about the activities you usually do at work, at home, to get from place to place, or as sport, exercise, leisure or recreation time. Each activity should be for at least 10 minutes.

How many days would you have done the following kinds of exercise or activities, for longer than 10 minutes at a time?

Interviewer Note: If respondent asks, clarify that exercise/activity at work is included.

ACT1A. Firstly, vigorous exercise. During a typical week, how many days per week (0 – 7) do you do vigorous exercise – which makes your heart beat rapidly AND leaves you breathing hard e.g. jogging, fast cycling, aerobics, vigorous swimming, heavy lifting and digging?

IF = 0 GO TO ACT4A
IF = 9 GO TO ACT4A

ACT1B. How long on average did you do this type of activity on these days (<30 mins, 30-60 min, more than 60 min)?

ACT4A. And how often do you do moderate exercise? During a typical week, how many days per week (0 – 7) do you do moderate exercise – which makes you breathe somewhat harder than normal and may include carrying light loads, bicycling at a regular pace, or doubles tennis?

IF ACT4A = 0 or 9 AND ACT1A = 1-7 GO TO ACT7
IF ACT4A = 0 or 9 AND ACT1A = 0 or 9 GO TO ACT10

Interviewer Note: If respondent asks, clarify that exercise/activity at work is included.

ACT4B. How long on average did you do this type of activity on these days (<30 mins, 30-60 min, more than 60 min)?

Optional interviewer comment if the person found the questionnaire a bit odd or upsetting:

You can explain that this questionnaire is used internationally in similar studies and to make comparisons we need to ask the same questions.

The last set of questions asked about your thoughts and feelings over the last week. I would now like to ask you about your feelings and thoughts over the last four weeks. In each case you will be asked how often you felt or thought in a certain way. Although some of the questions seem similar, there are differences between them, so please treat each one as a separate question.

Here are some statements that may or may not describe what you are like. For each statement, please tell me the number on this show card that best describes you.

Please ask if you don't know what a word means.

NOTE TO THE INTERVIEWER.

If the person finds answering the questions difficult because they believe their behaviour changes depending on the situation, please remind them that we are looking at general behaviours. Acknowledge that there are always situations where our behaviour changes. For example, people are likely to be quiet and reserved at a funeral or tangi, compared to a wedding or party. We are interested in behaviour generally. Therefore, when they look across a range of situations, would they describe themselves as generally a bossy person?

In recent years there has been a growing awareness of a distinct New Zealand identity – things which make us unique as Kiwis and which separate us from other countries. The All Blacks, Bar-B-Q's, Waitangi Day Commemorations, or even the Māori New-Year "Matariki" are just some examples of these. The following series of questions is designed to explore your knowledge of Kiwi culture. Remember, there are no right or wrong answers, and each response should be based on your idea of what Kiwi culture is.
